

A woman with short grey hair and glasses sits on a patterned rug in a living room, holding a small white stuffed animal. She has a worried expression. In the background, a child in a green shirt is running on a grey sofa. The room is filled with toys like blocks and a train set on the rug, and several potted plants on the windowsill. The text 'Vreemd hè?' is overlaid at the top.

Vreemd hè?

Ze wil ineens niet meer knuffelen...
